Letter from the Principal

In life there are paths to follow and paths to forge. During your lives here at WHS I have seen the class of 2014 attempt both. Although I started my role as Interim Principal this year as you all returned in August as seniors, I feel that I have come to know you well. You greet me with your warm smiles and pleasant "good mornings" as you enter the building every morning, you wave hello when passing me in the halls, you stop by my office to ask a question, discuss a concern, or just to chat. There is a warmth and friendliness attached to your class that makes it all worthwhile to be a member of the WHS family. No matter how much work there is to do, no matter how my day is going, you make me smile. That is something I will remember fondly when I think of your class.

I am sure that four years seemed an eternity as you started your life at WHS as freshmen. I am as sure that you are now wondering where those four years have gone. I hope that it was a journey of wonderful memories – a journey which provided you with paths to follow and paths to forge. Whether your strengths are in academics, athletics, art, music, or drama what matters most is that you arrived here every day ready to follow or forge. Please take the time to reflect on your four-year journey and focus on the good times, the positive experiences, the fun you had, the differences you have made.

As you begin a new journey beyond WHS, I wish for you every success, every happiness, everything good in your future. Be sure to know that we are always here to celebrate your success and help you along the way. You are and always will be part of the WHS family.
Follow the paths that lead you to happiness; forge those paths for yourself and others leading the way to happiness.

Thanks for a wonderful year,

Miss Peters

The 2014 yearbook is dedicated to...

Richard Fardy

Mr. Fardy has been teaching at Wilmington High for forty-nine years, and we will all miss him when he retires this year. Mr. Fardy is not only a great teacher, teaching Biology and Anatomy, but he is also a great friend to all of his students. He is always ready to give his students extra help with their classes, or to lend them lunch money if they forget. He is a great man, with many talents as he is often seen performing with the Marching Band during pep rallies. A student couldn't ask for a better teacher and friend. As Mr. Fardy likes to say, he is a "senior", just like the class of 2014, and he will be missed when he "graduates" this year. A big thank you for everything he has done for the students and staff of Wilmington High School.

Sue Murray

Mrs. Murray has been a beacon of light in the Guidance Office, and has always greeted students with a smile in some of the most difficult and anxiety-provoking months of senior year. She has battled through her own health concerns and bravely fought cancer, all while supporting the students of Wilmington High School. She is a testament to persevering through life's detours, and coming out the other side in a new place with the experience and resolve to tackle anything that may come our way. We thank you Mrs. Murray, for showing us that no matter what life has in store for us, keeping a positive attitude throughout the tough times will go farther than any medicine.

The Class of 2014 entered the High School as freshmen and had a pretty generic first year at Wilmington High School. We had our first class fundraiser which was held at the Ninety Nines in Wilmington. Many athletes tried out for various teams at our school. The drama club put on Macbeth our freshmen year. Also we experienced our first High School spirit week. With our Class Day being Decade Day. We all became adjusted to the school and we prepared for the four years we would soon be spending together.

Sophomore year our class raised a lot of money as we began to prepare for Junior Prom. This year we held yet another Ninety Nines fundraiser as well as an incredbly successful Mini-golf Fundraiser. Many students continuted to excell in athletics and other clubs throughout the school. This year the drama club and its members put on the Pajama Games which was a huge success. We continued to participate in Spirit week as a class. We showed our unity by sharing Animal Day as our Class Day. Which spawned many creative outfits and ideas. We had finally conquered sophomore year, and before we knew it we were moving on to becoming upper classmen. A new chapter in our Wilmington High School story.

Junior year was a year to remember for the Class of 2014, we had many fundraisers as we prepared for Junior Prom. We had a Ninety-Nine's fundraiser, sold military bracelets, sold flowers & bracelets at the Class of 2013 graduation, and hosted the annual Talent Show. The Masquerade themed prom was a huge success and everyone who went danced the night away. The hockey team won their second State Championship in a row while in Division 2. As well as many other sports teams had very successful and record breaking seasons. The Lamplighters Drama Guild put on Julius Caesar, Sweeney Todd, and Still Falls the Rain. They also advanced to states in the Massachusetts Educational Drama Festival.The gym was torn down at the end of this year as start of the construction of the new high school began. Spirit Week gave our class another change to show how much we love our school. All week we showed creativity, spirit, and class pride, especially on our class day which was TV Character Day. Our class continued to grow closer and closer as we moved into the role of the new senior class.

The Class of 2014 had an amazing senior year to finish off all the time they had spent together as a class. As Mr. Tracy left, Ms. Peters stepped into the role of principal for our senior year. We also had to contend with the construction of the new school, dealing with no gym to play games in, as well going through the changing of the Student Parking Lot to the Student/Teacher Parking Lot. The year was filled with plenty of events as well. The girl's soccer team made it to the State finals and the boy's team was ranked 11th in MA and made a strong run in the tournament. The hockey team made yet another deep tournament run after being moved into D1 after two consecutive D2 State Titles. Many seniors participated in the Prom Fashion Show, where everyone had a great time, despite the limited turn out. The drama club put on Arcadia as well as Misalliance Cut of Act II, both of which gathered very large crowds. The seniors displayed great pride and creativity during spirit week with their Class Day being Costume Day. The Class of 2014 put on a Dodgeball Tournament which all classes were welcome to participate in. The year ended with a fantastic Senior Week. Our Red Carpet themed Prom was perfect and everyone had a great time with memories made that would last a life time. Without the help of the teachers and staff at WHS, we would not have been as successful as we were. The Class of 2014 will not easily be forgotten after we leave. We have left a legacy that will inspire all to be just as memorable. Now it is our turn to go on and discover ourselves and see what we are all truly made of.

My high school experience as a whole has taught me a very important lesson in life. Don't follow in the steps of others, do your own thing and make your own path to follow, become a strong independent person and discover who you really are. Be your own person because in the end, you are the only one you will ever need to depend on. To everybody who helped make this experience memorable thank you for being there, and for those who didn't make the effort, I wish you the best of luck. Take care :)

Four years ago, Mr.Tracy sat us down in the auditorium and told us not to blink, because these next four years are going to go by quick. I never realized how true that statement was, until all four years had passed.

I want to thank my family and friends for some of the most enjoyable years of my life. I wish everyone the best of luck in the future.

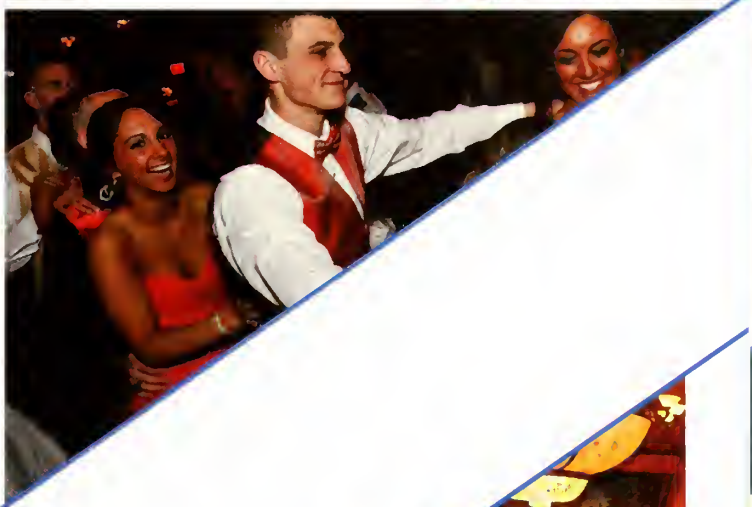
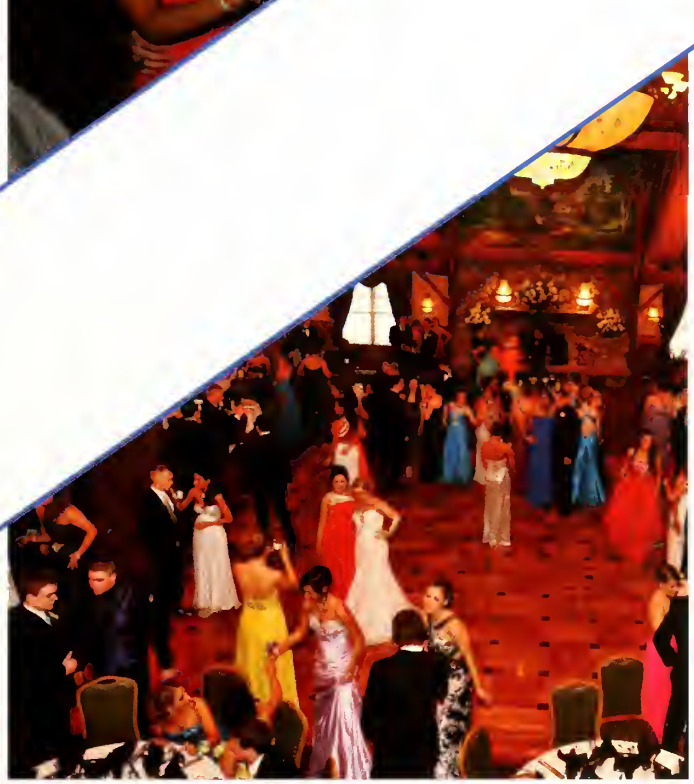
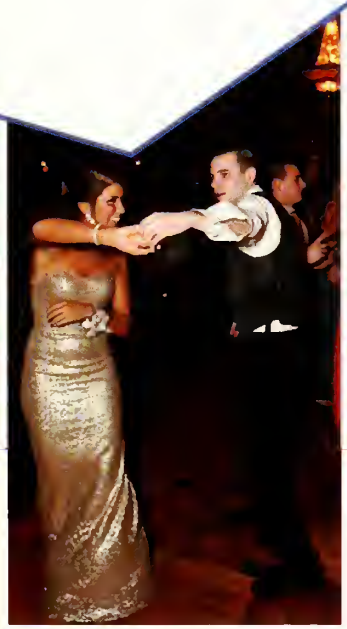
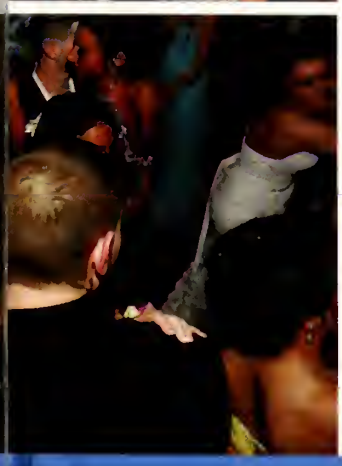
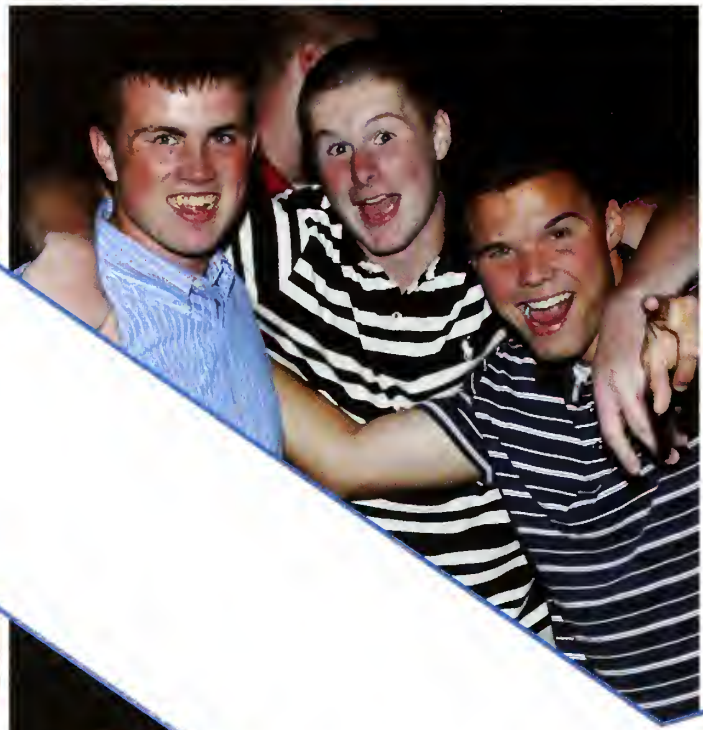
Held at the beautiful Tewksbury Country Club, juniors rolled up in style with limos and cars filling up the parking lot. All in attendance dressed in gorgeous dresses and handsome tuxedos ready to dance the night away. Besides the numerous photos taken that night, there was hours of dancing, delicious food and memories to last a lifetime for everyone that attended. The night was capped off with the presentation of the Prom Court. The 2013 Junior Prom King and Queen were Connor Farnam and Gianna Mirabella. The court included Scott Manganelli, Shauna Mazzie, Dylan Maltais, Lilly Day, Connor Townsend, Katy Goodwin, Troy Vibert and Lilly Furrier.











Homecoming 2013

Sponsored by the Wilmington High School Athletic Depatrment and assisted by the Class of 2013, this year's Homecoming Dance was held in the Middle School Gymnasium since the high school gym was torn down the previous February to make room for construction of the new high school. The gym filled up quickly as students came together to celebrate the start of another school year. After an evening of mingling and dancing with friends, the night came to a close with the announcement of the Homecoming King and Queen, as well as the Court. Sylvan Huynh and Alicia Speranza were crowned Homecoming King and Queen. The Court included Kerry Ryan, Mike Diorio, Lauren Amazeen, Nicole Potcner, Ryan McEvoy, Rachael Mara, Scott Manganelli and Danielle Reynolds.

Spirit Week - Class Day

As always, WHS started Spirit Week with Class Day. Seniors, assuming the traditional "Costume Day" theme, marched through the school dressed in elaborate outfits ranging from morph suits to Gandalf from The Lord of the Rings fame. Juniors donned the Disney theme dressed as princesses, dalmations, and many more. The Sophmore class chose Movie Day with costumes looking like they were straight off of a Hollywood set. Freshman took full advantage of a Pajama themed day coming dressed in a variety of feety pajamas, robes and slippers.

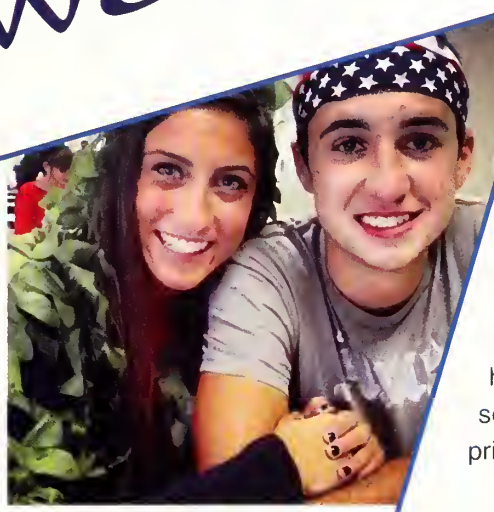
Spirit Week - Army Day

On the second day of Spirit Week, students at WHS showed off their support for the brave men and women of our country by wearing military memorabilia and gear to school. From hallways to classrooms, an assortment of Navy, Army, Air Force and Marine attire could be found. Some students wore peace-themed clothing expressing their desire for the safe return of our soldiers back home. All day long dog-tags jingled and boots sounded throughout the building keeping the pride and school spirit alive at WHS.



Spirit Week - Sports Da

With Spirit Week half-way to the end, Sports Day was upon the school. An array of jersey's, t-shirts and sports equipment could be seen throughout the school. Along with many others, ping pong, ultimate frisbee and extreme underwater basket weaving were all represented that day. There were Mario Kart racers, soccer players dressed as the field hockey team and the volleyball team came dressed as the Boy's two-time D2 State Championship hockey team; blond, gold, yellow (or even some times green) hair included!

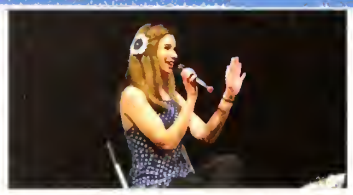
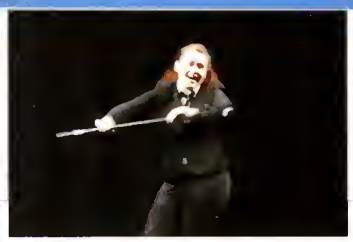
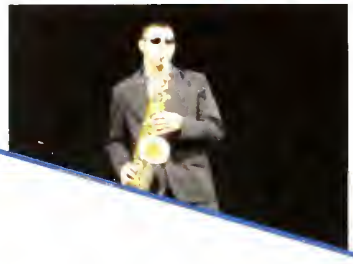
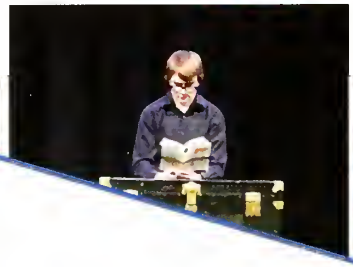
Week - Blue & White

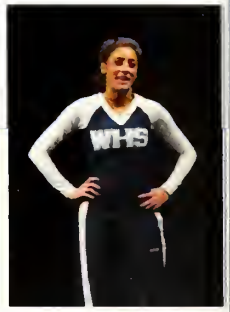
In grand tradition, the annual Blue and White Day closed out the 2013 Spirit Week festivities. Arguably the biggest and craziest day in everyone's high school career, this year proved to be no different. Shades of blue and white coated the hallways as students proudly marched from class to class with blue and white hair, beads, face paint and shirts. Even without the pep rally, the senior class still proudly got to display their quote on the football field bleachers making it a great way to end their final Spirit Week and a preview of just how much the rest of the year had to offer!











Mr. and Ms. WHS

On December 3, 2013 the annual Mr. and Ms. WHS Competition was held in Herbert C. Barrows Auditorium. This year, five contestants competed for the two coveted titles. Based on talent, spirit and an interview, the contestants were judged by fellow WHS teachers. Along with the much anticipated return of the "Geek 'n Pink", performances ranged from "The Sexy Sax Man" to the school fight song played to the tune of a kazoo. The beloved "Hey Baby" also made one last appearance and got everyone up on their feet, singing and dancing. After ballots were tallied, Ryan Carroccino and Nikk Tetreault were crowned as the new Mr. and Ms. WHS!

Girls Flag Football

For the first time in WHS history, the Junior and Senior girls faced off under the lights on Alumni Field. In what promised to be one heck of a game, both teams took to the field with one goal in mind: winning the three-foot tall trophy and triumphing over their competitors. The junior and senior girls battled it out on the field; throwing unbelievable passes and making incredible plays. Upon entrance, attendees were able to donate canned goods to de delivered to the town's Food Pantry. The girls were cheered on by classmates as well as their "male cheerleaders" who performed a halftime show that included a dance number to Justin Timberlake's "Sexy Back." Members of the Marching Band also helped get fans and players into the spirit by playing some of their tunes from the football games. Rain and all, the night proved to be one to remember and concluded with the seniors narrowly defeating the juniors. The night would not have been possible without the help of WHS faculty members who helped the night go off without a hitch.

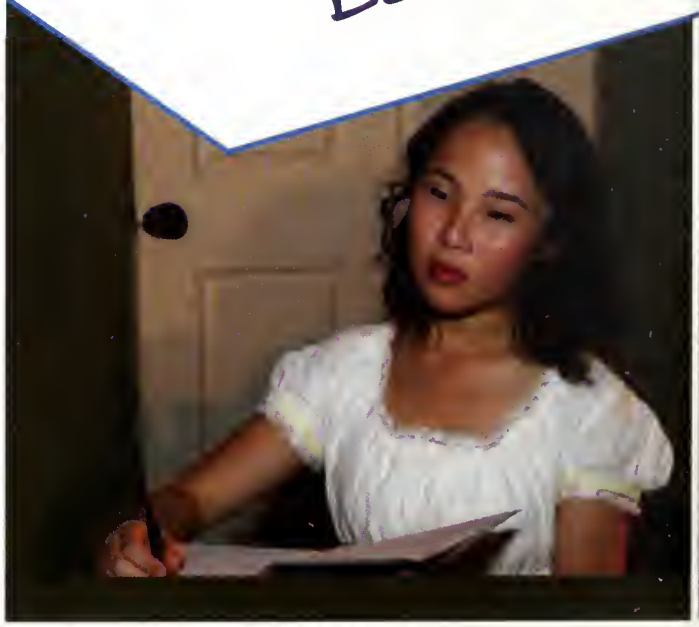
Lamplighte



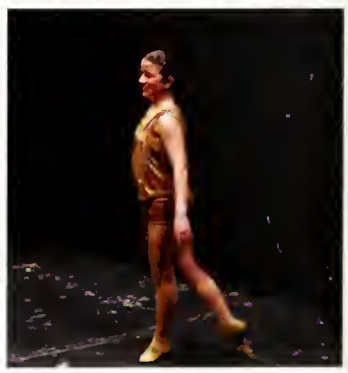
s Drama Guild presents...Arcadia

This year's fall production was Tom Stoppard's Arcadia, by the WHS Lamplighter's Guild. Arcadia is a comedic drama about love, death, philosophy, science, the relationship between past and present, order and disorder, and the certainty of knowledge. A daunting task to be sure, but the talented actors, crew, and directors faced it with gusto and executed the play perfectly. The guild has done it again, and wowed us with another great fall show.

Arcadia Set Sketch

Talent Show

This year's Talent Show was a line-up of a dozen acts of song and dance from Wilmington High School's finest. The audience and judges were rocked, rapped, dazzled and serenaded throughout this close contest of virtuosity. The talented folk-rock trio, From Now On, comprised of Shannon Sullivan, Craig Venezia, and Joey Tassone claimed third place. Alise Lamothe and Sharmetha Ramanan's clever and original duet mash-up earned them second place. However, it was Rachel Sainato's strong solo performance that won the hearts of the judges and the audience that night, placing her in first place.



Prom Fashion Show

As the winter came to a close, one of the most exciting times of the year at WHS began; prom season. Hosted by the Junior and Senior classes, students participated in the annual Prom Fashion Show. After taking a walk through the Prom Expo, where local businesses showcased what they offer during the prom season, students gathered in the auditorium to watch fellow students strut their stuff. Junior and senior girls and guys had the opportunity to showcase both the latest styles and some unique fashions that wouldn't normally be worn to a prom nowadays. The girls and guys, wearing dresses and tuxedos donated buy Russo's Tux and Dress Store, each got their time to shine on the stage. Everyone put their own spin on the catwalk and got the chance to strike a pose at the end. As the night came to a close, the raffle winners name's were drawn capping off another successful fundraiser at WHS.

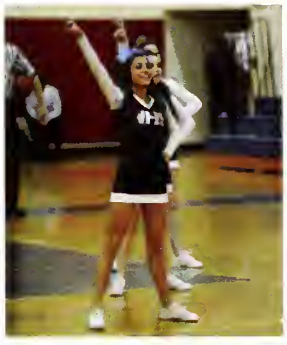
The WHS football team entered the 2013 season hungry for redemption from what most felt was a sub-par year prior. Led by senior Captains Ryan Carrocino, Dan Paige, and Troy Vibert the team was incredibly optimistic about their chances this season. The season opened with a tough losses to Arlington and Winchester. It seemed as though the squad was picking up right where they left off last year, however this team wouldn't let these losses phase them. They came back in week three and defeated the talented Arlington Catholic team 20-0. The season continued with its tidal wave of ups and downs, ultimately finishing the season 3-9. Though the year didn't go as most had hoped, there were still many positives.

Team Roster. Christina Amato, Jessica Arbeely, Erin Campbell, Jennifer Dovidio, Mckayla Hersom*, Montana Howlett, Jamie Murray, Katelyn Newton, Olivia Petrucci, Danielle Rae*, Mikaila Russell, Rachel Spada, Savannah Sullivan, Shayna Sullivan, Julie Welch*, Samantha Worob

Whether it was cheering on the sidelines or taking the mat at a competition, the Wilmington High School cheerleaders had a great season. Senior captains Danielle Rae, Julie Welch, and Mckayla Hersom brought the team close together like a family. The team attended both football and basketball games to cheer on the players and show school spirit. Cheering for games was not the only activity that our cheerleaders did, they competed around the state against some of the best cheering squads. With the mix of hard work and dedication the team qualified to make it to states for both the fall and winter seasons. WHS cheerleaders had a great season and our school is proud to have such a talented and successful team.



Cheerleading

The Boy's Varsity soccer team started off rocky this season with a tough out of conference loss to North Reading 1-0. The senior leaden squad would not let this continue as they came back in their first conference game to shutout Woburn in a 3-0 victory. The team captained by seniors Keeper Luke Foley, Midfielder Drew Foley, and Defender Chris Michelangelo would only lose two more games on their road to the state tournament. The Wildcats tough schedule had them prepared for the grueling test of the D2 State Tournament. For seniors, this wouldn't be their first go around in the tourney but it would be their last and they wished to finish it right. Wilmington drew Weston in the first round of the tournament and they pulled out a 2-0 victory in a hard fought game. The second round would play against Bedford and the game would not fare as well for the Wilmington boys. Keeper Luke Foley did his best to keep the game close but in the end there wasn't enough offense on the squad. They would go on to lose 1-0 and with that loss, the hope of a State Title was shattered. All in all it was an impressive season from the boy's squad. The graduating seniors left have taught valuable lessons to those returning. Key players returning hope to pick up right where those ahead of them have left off and continue with success.

Boys Soccer

Girls Soccer

The Girls Varsity Soccer Team started off the year with very high expectations and they would not disappoint. Led by senior captains, Alex Bischoff, Kaitlyn Curley, and Lauren Amazeen, the lady cats were a group of seasoned veterans looking to make a run in the Division 2 state tournament. The year started off well for the squad with early season wins against North Reading and Revere as well as The Wildcat's first league win against Woburn. The girl's hit a bump in the road in their season in a tough 1-0 loss to a very talented Lexington team but they would not let this phase them. The senior leaden team had lots of experience which would prove to be a crucial factor in the girl's run all the way to the D2 State Finals. Here they would face one final test, Notre Dame Academy. This game would prove to be an instant classic and after an hour of play the two teams were tied at 2-2. Not even two overtimes would be able to separate these two teams. Despite the valiant efforts of sophomore goalkeeper Kellie Souza, Notre Dame won on the last shot of the game defeating Wilmington 3-2. It was a season to remember for the girl's squad and many talented underclassmen return next year looking to keep the winning tradition in Wilmington alive.

Field Hockey

Team Roster: Rachel Alatalo, Caroline Albanese, Kourtney Bolis, Jocelyn Cornish, Lauren Fitch, Bethany Kane, Brianna Kumm, Jess Marciello, Shelby McHugh, Nicole McIrney, Katherine McKenna, Melissa McNamara, Shreya Pai, Nicole Resendes, Amanda Richards*, Meghan Rodenhiser, Sophie Serna*, Bridget Sullivan, Jillian Williams*

Wilmington High School's varsity field hockey team, lead by returning coach Leanne Ebert, had a successful season on and off the field. The senior laden team was lead to victory on the field by captains Sophie Serna, Amanda Richards, and Katherine McKenna. Every year the Wildcats field hockey team gathers and works together to participate in fund raisers for the team as well as memorial scholarships. Fighting along side the senior captains were seniors Rachel Alatalo, Jocelyn Cornish, Jillian Williams, Shreya Pai, and Jessica Marciello. This year will be no different, and a legacy of success will be handed down to next year's strong seniors for another spirited, successful season!

Golf

Senior Captain and Middlesex League All-Star Ryan McEvoy led the Boys Varsity Golf team to a respectable 4-7 league record this past fall. The team came in second in the small division, known now as the Freedom, and qualified for the state tournament. Other key pieces of the team's puzzle included Senior Michael Curtis as well as Juniors Andrew Labao and Glenn Sullivan. Though the team had its ups and downs it was a year of overachieving for a very young team who had lost key seniors last year. Though the record on paper may not be what many had hoped there is a lot to be optimistic about. All member of the team will be back next year except the two seniors, those returning will look to improve from this year even further. For Captain McEvoy, bigger and better things await him at Bentley College where he hopes to play on the golf team and be a key contributor. The future looks bright for both those returning, as well as those moving on to bigger and better things. One thing is for sure, coach Steve Lynch has the Wilmington Golf program on the right track and headed for success.

Boys Cross Country

The Boys Cross Country team, better known as the Underdog's of the Middlesex League finished with a record of 1-5 for the season. The record alone does not paint the picture of this team's success and accomplishment for the season. In every race the boys ran they were incredibly out numbered and less experienced than any other team in the league. Week by week the boys got better and it began to show thanks to the leadership of captains Justin Larosa and Middlesex League All-Star Alexander Pizette, Robert Hartsough, Chris Maienza, and Avery Woodbury were three of the other largest contributors to the team's success towards the end of the season. Many of the team's key contributors will be back next season hoping to improve what was a less than stellar record.

Girls Cross Country

Senior Nicole Romanzo and sophomore Callie O'Connell captained the Girls Cross Country team to a 2-4 overall record. Much like the boys team, the record does not speak to how well they ran and individual girl's performances. The stand out for the girls team was sophomore captain Callie O'Connell as she racked up all sorts of accolades. These included: Middlesex League All-Star, 4th in the Middlesex League meet, and 10th in both the State and All State meets. Other stand out performers on the team were, sophomores Anne Romanzo and Maeve Sullivan as well as junior Jacqueline Ryan. The team only loses one senior this year (Captain Nicole Romanzo), all other runners will be back looking to improve from this year.

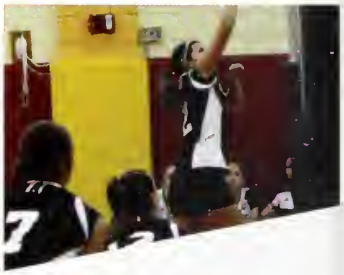
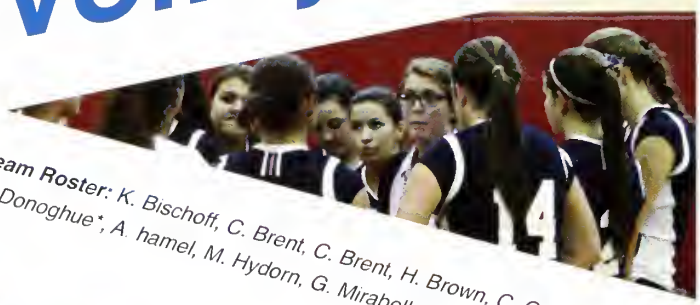
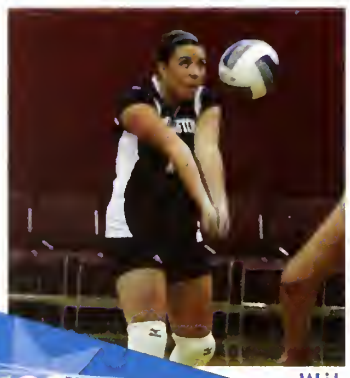
Volleyball

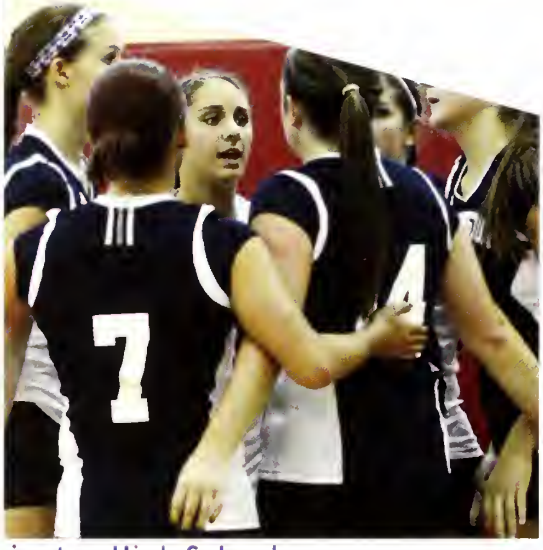
The Girls Varsity Volleyball team led by senior captains Chloe Castellano and Kimberly Donoghue finished with a league record of 5-11 in a brutally tough Middlesex League as well as an overall record of 6-14. The team was a mix of many veteran seniors as well as a barrage of underclassman and younger talent. The team ran through its highs and lows and their record does not speak towards the heart and tenacity that they played with. Key contributing seniors include: Gianna Mirabella (middle), Megan Hydorn (outside), and Fallon Soye (back row). It was a season of development for younger players and one of teaching for the seniors who would be leaving. Though on paper their record wasn't the best it was a year of valuable experience and due to that the girls will only improve in the years to come. Talented returning player include: Hannah Brown (outside/middle), Kristen Connors (back row/setter), and Erica Pudvelis (middle). With another year of experience under their belts the returning players will look to improve in the upcoming year and make a statement in the Middlesex League next season.



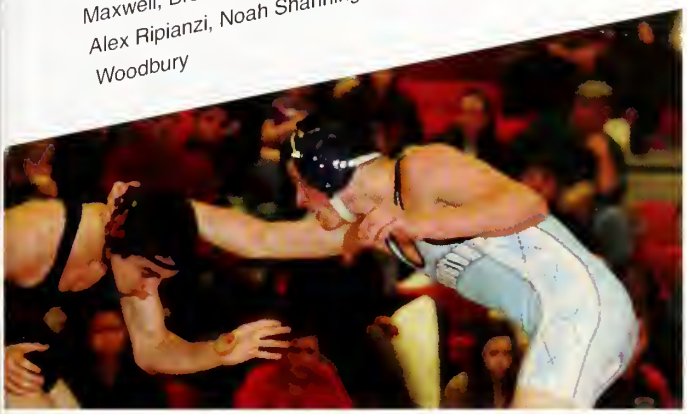


Team Roster: K. Bischoff, C. Brent, C. Brent, H. Brown, C. Castellano*, A. Chase, K. Connors, K. Donoghue*, A. hamel, M. Hydorn, G. Mirabella, M. Murray, E. Pudvelis, H. Reynolds, F. Soye





Roster: Ryan Adams, Cameron Burke, James Carroll, Michael Dancewicz, Matthew Diorio, Lucas Goodwin, Thomas Gorman, Collin Hoffman, Samuel Jennings, Louis Larffarello, Darren LeBlanc, Andrew Lesperance*, Fox Maxwell, Brendan McCarthy, Patrick McFall, Brandon Medbery, Brian Metcalfe, Kyle Nelson, Vincent Pietropaolo, Alex Ripianzi, Noah Shanning, Daniel Smalley, Quintin Soye, Thomas Stein, Nicholas Troy*, Tyler Ward, Avery Woodbury



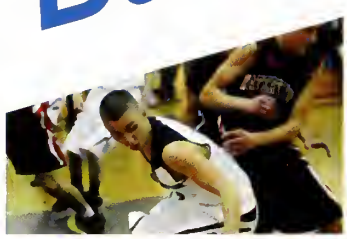
This year the Wilmington High School Wrestling team had a record breaking season. They won the league championship for the first time in school history. The team was led by senior captain Nick Troy and junior captain Andy Lesperance. Seven members of the team qualified for states including Louie Larffarello who became the first Heavyweight Sectional Champion in school history. With an overall record of 13-8 it was a very successful season. Every member of the team was determined to do their very best at each and every meet. Through hard work, dedication and perseverance, the team had the best season in school history.

Wrestling

Team Roster: Z. Abbott, C. Ahern, C. Bennett, R. Colangelo, D. Field, R. Flood, R. Horgan, K. Keane*, S. Manganelli*, R. McEvoy, J. Murphy, J. O'Regan, M. Penney, E. Raffi, M. Spurr, R. Walsh*

The basketball team had a tough season in regards to their record this year. The record of 3-17 does not reflect how hard the team worked everyday. The team was led by captains Colin Ahern, Kevin Keane and Scott Manganelli. Fellow seniors on the team were Ryan McEvoy and Jimmy Murphy. The boys notched their first win in the annual Christmas tournament against Shawsheen Tech. Later in the season, the team got their first win in the Middlesex League in two years against Arlington and another a few games later against Wakefield. The boys worked hard and never gave up at any point throughout the season. Although the record doesn't show it, the basketball team should be awarded for their hard work and dedication.

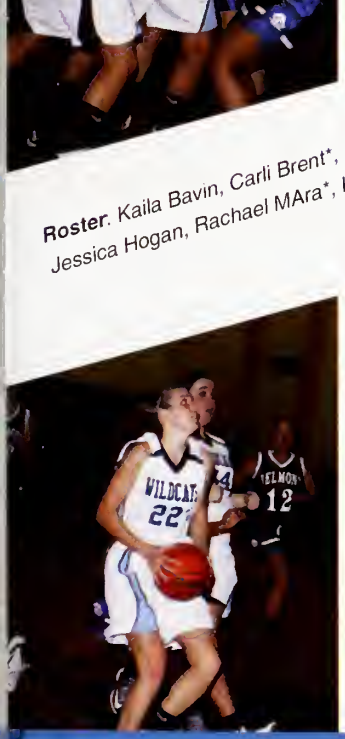
Boys Basketball



Girls Basketball

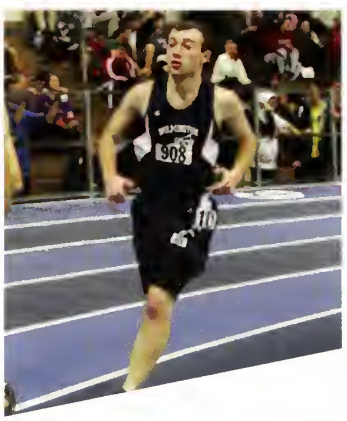
The Girls Varsity Basketball team was a group of seasoned veterans hungry for a shot at a Division 2 Title coming into the season. Led by head coach Brienne Karow and seniors, Rachael Mara, Christa Brent, Carli Brent, Kaitlyn Cowden, Katherine McKenna, and Kimberly Donoghue the team was poised and ready to make a lot of noise in the Middlesex League. The season started off rocky for the Lady Cats, with two tough league losses early in the season to Lexington (55-52) and Woburn (58-47). The tide began to turn for the team in the month of January when they really began to hit their stride knocking off Stoneham and Melrose. Freshman Olivia O'Regan and sophomore Erica Pudvelis would prove themselves to be vital pieces of the teams' puzzle and would contribute a great deal towards the end of the season. In the Division 2 tournament the Wildcat's were seeded third and were set to play Dracut from the Merrimack Valley Conference. Dracut ultimately beat Wilmington by a score of 60-48 in a tough fought game. The season did not end the way the girls had hoped but the team put together an impressive regular season record and younger players learned from gained valuable experience.

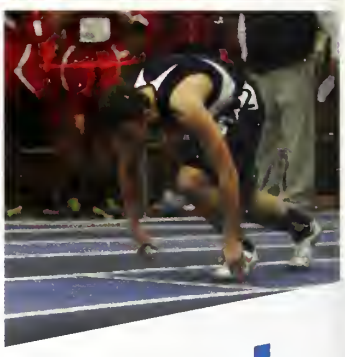
Roster. Kaila Bavin, Carli Brent*, Christa Brent*, Abigail Chase, Kristen Connors, Kaitlyn Cowden, Kimberly Donoghue, Jessica Hogan, Rachael MAra*, Katherine McKenna, Olivia O'Regan, Amber Peach, Erica Pudvelis



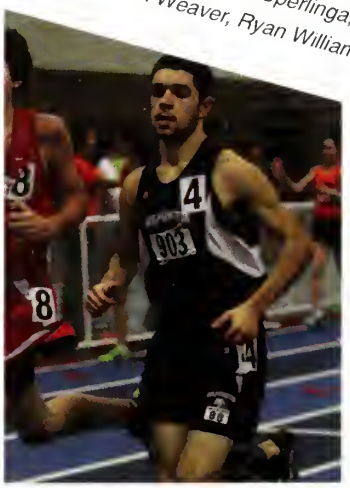
Boys Indoor Track

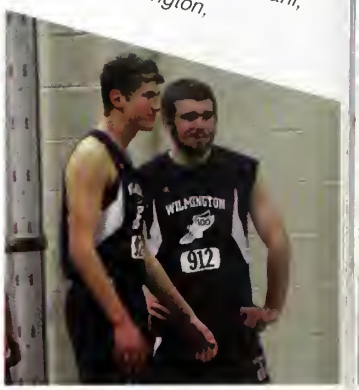
The boy's winter track team was coached by Michael Kinney and captained by Eli Jennings, Connor Townsend, Colin Chase, and Craig Smith. Though the team was missing many of its key pieces to other winter sports, they were still a very competitive and talented group of individuals. The win and loss columns did not prove how good the squad was with many meets coming down to the final race, Many consider the indoor track season a spring training of sorts for outdoor track in the spring, but Coach Kinney along with Coach Brian Schell push their guys incredibly hard regardless. Many of those who run track year round used the winter as a time to polish their skills to get ready for the much more competitive spring season. There is a lot of anticipation for upcoming spring season as the team will be at full strength regaining those student athletes who play multiple sports. Though the record may not have been as good as many wanted or hoped the season was a test for the upcoming spring. Many newcomers gained a lot of experience and seasoned veterans polished their skills in order to be ready for what lies ahead.



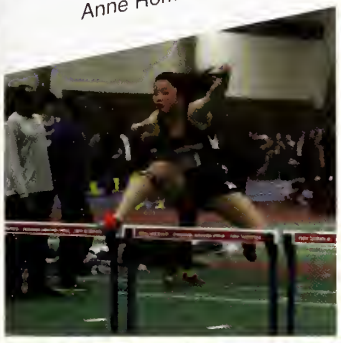


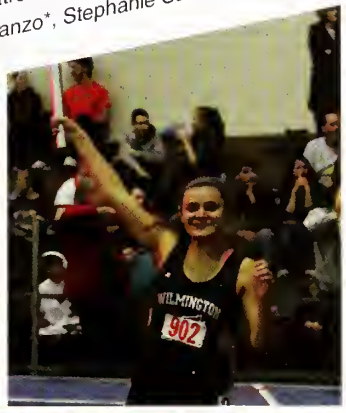
Roster: Conor Bailey, Daniel Bell, Ryan Broderick, Colin Chase*, Jason Dunn, Kevin Dunn, Ian Falcon, Robert Hartsough, Eli Jennings* Justin Larosa, Stephen Layon, Jarod Magliozzi, Christopher Maienza, Dylan Maltais, Luck McInnis, Christopher Michelangelo, Mason Ouellette, Christopher Patrone, Alexander Pizette, Vincenzo Poli, Benjamin Rohleder, Timothy Scalona, Kyle Souza, Craig Smith*, Evan Sperlinga, Jack Stanford, Jeremy Tingdahl, Connor Townsend, Nathaniel Vince, Jared Walsh, Jonathan Weaver, Ryan Williams, Trevor Worthington,



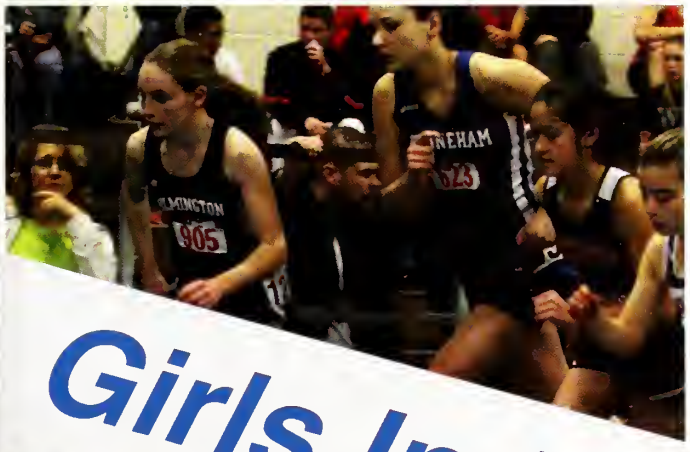


Roster. Danielle Baldi, Alex Bischoff*, Cecilia Chase, Christina Cox, Anna De la Cruz, Holly Doyle, Helen Freitas, Julia Gake, Jordyn Granara, Cassie Grasso*, Kelly Hartsough*, Shannon Horgan, Julianna Iocco, Jennifer Kannally*, Lily Keating, Victoria Le, Keara MacCorkle, Devyn malatesta, Casey McFall, Courtney McGondel, Elisabeth Olson, Meera Patel, Maria Patrone, Samantha Pitzi, Alexandria Riley, Stacy Robichaud, Sara Rodriguez Santos, Anne Romanzo, Nicole Romanzo*, Stephanie Santini, Christina Spinos, Charlotte Sulick, Brianna Tavares

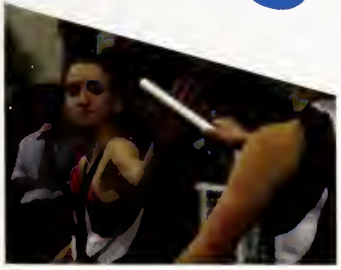




The girls track team had a great year filled with plenty of state qualifiers. The team was led by senior captains Alex Bischoff, Cassie Grasso, Kelly Hartsough, Nicole Romanzo and Jenn Kannally. The team also had some great leadership from some of the underclassmen. The hard work and dedication from each member of the team was more than anyone could have asked for. Three school records were set during the season: the 4x400, 4x200 and the 300. These girls will continue to succeed and improve in the seasons to come.



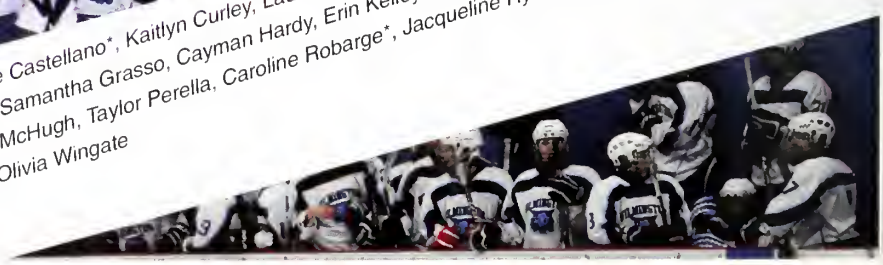
Girls Indoor Track

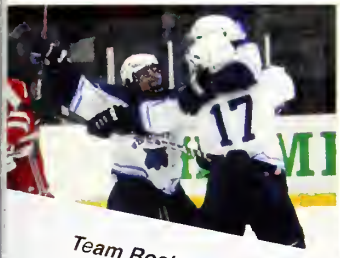


Girls Hockey

The Girls Varsity Hockey Team had a great season this year after coming off a few tough seasons. They came into the season confident, motivated and ready to improve. With a record of 7-12-2, they really showed how tough they were. After losing three in a row to the three toughest teams in Middlesex Large, the girls came back and corralled some great wins. The team was led by senior captains: Chloe Castellano, Sam DePasquale, Caroline Robarge, Taylor Parella and Adrianna Kippenburger. These five really brought the team together through team bonding and everyone looked up to them. The team was helped by a few girls from the middle school who dominated the ice on offense. Although falling just shy of the tournament, the girls worked hard day-in and day-out and were proud of their season and all that they accomplished.

Roster: Thea Alberti, Chloe Castellano*, Kaitlyn Curley, Lauren DePasquale, Samantha DePasquale*, Lauren Fitch, Nicole Gianatassio, Samantha Grasso, Cayman Hardy, Erin Kelley, Adrianna Kippenberger*, Lia Koukoutas, Deeanna Mallett, Shelby McHugh, Taylor Perella, Caroline Robarge*, Jacqueline Ryan, Bridget Santos, Danielle Silva, Jamie Spinazola, Olivia Wingate





The two-time defending D2 State champs were back at it again this year looking to make a splash in the much bigger waters of D1 hockey. Led by Captain Luke Foley this senior laden squad was primed to keep the winning traditions of the past few years alive. The team played quality hockey right from the beginning of the season but really got rolling in February. Part of this was due to the incredible play of senior goalie Drew Foley as well as the scoring duo of senior Cody McGowan and freshman Justin Collins. Capping off the season with a 5-3 win against long time rival Tewksbury, it would seem as though the wildcats were hitting their stride at just the right time. The boys were seeded third in the D1 tournament and came out with a 3-2 victory against Matignon. The quarterfinal would prove to be one of the most exciting games of the entire tournament, as Wilmington would surpass Medford in two over times with a 1-0 win. Cody McGowan scored the game winner propelling the wildcats to the semi's and putting his mark in Wilmington hockey history. In the semi finals the wildcats would once again merely skate by in a 3-2 OT win against Arlington, setting up a rematch against Reading for the D1 North Championship.

Boys Hockey

In a game for the ages that would span two overtimes, Reading would prove to be too much in a 12 round shoot out that would end with a 4-3 loss ending the Wildcats' season. Not the storybook ending the team or the loyal student's section had hoped for, but nothing to be ashamed of. A team who everyone ruled out, rose up against the odds to come within a shot of their third straight state championship game.

These events cover Economics, Language and Literature, Mathematics, Music, Fine Arts and Social Science. Students are given awards based both on individual and team achievements. Club WHS

In Club WHS we volunteer and make a difference in our community in any way that we can. Once a week, some of the students in Club WHS tutor middle schoolers. During Thanksgiving we held a food drive, and donated over a hundred food items to the Wilmington Food Pantry. We also volunteered at Habitat for Humanity's Restore twice, and plan to work more with them in the future. In February, along with Medical Careers Club, we went to the Buzzell Senior Center and had a game day with the seniors. During the week of Valentine's Day we held "Operation Beautiful" and promoted positivity rather than negative selftalk. Even though we are a small group, we are working to make our community a better place.

DECA

The Wilmington chapter of DECA has had tremendous success over the 2013-2014 school year. The club is effectively run by student leaders and club meetings focused on preparing students for leadership in careers in business, entrepreneurship, marketing, management, and hospitality. We had guest speakers who shared their careers and career advice with students and spend time doing community service work such as writing letters to veterans. Students excelled in competition, succeeding in tests and role plays, with 45 students moving on to state level competition. Life Skills DECA students participated in a Life Skills District competition. WHS DECA worked to organize fundraising events, including the Winter Semi Formal dance and Harlem Superstars game, to help financially support students as they advanced in competition. Wilmington once again had state winners with senior Rachel Alatalo sweeping her category and coming in first in the state in the Food Marketing series. Additional winners include seniors Anthony Vitale and Dan Lee who won 3rd in the Team Buying and Merchandising, and junior Eva Nesline came 3rd in Hotel and Lodging Marketing. Those state winners went on to compete at Nationals in Atlanta in May.

While the club focuses on the languages and nationalities of many of our members, we also introduce members to the food, sports, and customs of distant countries that they would not have normally have the chance to experience. Foreign Language Club ran their annual "Fun with Foreign Language" teaching at the North and West Intermediate schools allowing 5th graders to be exposed to French, Spanish, and Italian allowing them to better choose a language for their entrance into the Middle School. The club also ran a monthly conversation group allowing students to communicate with one another in French, Spanish, and Italian. The class officers also held a fundraiser at Panera Bread to raise money. Students purchased food from Panera and in turn some of the profit was donated back to the Class of 2016. Recently, there has been a car-spot fundraiser, which has allowed the student with the winning raffle ticket to park in the front of the school for two weeks. Every third week, a new winner is drawn. The class officers are also in charge of Spring Fling, which is on March 28th. They are also collecting class dues.
